STYLISH AND INSPIRING MEETINGS AT THE NATIONAL MARITIME MUSEUM

Increase the creativity, innovation and effectiveness of your meeting by holding it in the inspiring and monumental Chambers of The National Maritime Museum. The light and airy Heldenhoek Chambers create a stimulating setting for your meeting, presentation or seminar.

Characteristic meeting rooms

The historic, high-ceilinged Chambers, named after the Dutch naval heroes Tromp, De Ruyter, and Van Heemskerck, are available as meeting locations during the day and in the evening hours. The Chambers can be used individually or in conjunction with one another; and each has a projector, a screen, and free wi-fi. The National Maritime Museum can provide whatever equipment you need and offers professional technical support in-house.

High standard catering

Round off an inspiring meeting with our own high-quality catering. The National Maritime Museum has put together various catering packages for meetings.

Two-hour catering package	€ 15.00 per person
Four-hour catering package, excluding lunch	€ 20.00 per person
Four-hour catering package, including lunch	€ 35.00 per person
Six-hour catering package, including lunch	€ 40.75 per person
Eight-hour catering package, including lunch	€ 45.25 per person

The prices listed above are excluding venue hire and VAT and including coffee, tea, water, and biscuits during your meeting. The above lunch is a sandwich lunch with a glass of fruit juice, a dairy beverage and fresh fruit.

Tip: Your guests will surely enjoy a break from their hard work in the meeting, so why not treat them to a visit to The National Maritime Museum? Admission price to the museum, when purchased in combination with your meeting, is just € 3.00 per person.
