

Het Concertgebouw

A beautiful venue for your event

Welcome to the Concertgebouw

Positioned in a dream location near the Museum Square in Amsterdam, and easily accessible by public transport: the Concertgebouw offers an exquisite venue for your event. The various rooms and halls are perfect for parties, dinners, receptions, meetings and conferences.

Each year, the Concertgebouw organises some 200 events for companies and institutions. If you choose the Concertgebouw as your venue, you will be carrying on a long tradition of exceptional performers and event planners. Whether you are organising a small brainstorming session for 10 people, a reception for 100 guests or a large meeting for 3000 business associates, the Concertgebouw offers you the perfect setting for your gathering.

Quality and service

If you select the Concertgebouw as the location for your event, we assume full responsibility for the associated hosting duties. This leaves you free to focus all your attention on your guests. We work together with a large number of caterers, and a menu will be created to meet your specific wishes. Dinners can be organised for a maximum of 2000 guests.

Our goal is to provide you with the best quality and service for the organisation of your event. This means that you can be assured that everything will run smoothly and be organised down to the smallest detail.

Main Hall

For a stylish event

The large Main Hall is the perfect location for your conference or convention. By removing the chairs, the hall can be easily transformed into a special venue for a stylish party, reception or dinner. This hall will accommodate around 2000 guests. Musical performances can easily be organised, and you are assured of the best possible acoustics.

The attractive foyers around the hall offer the perfect spot for lunches or walking dinners, and can also be used as a reception area.

- Chairs can be removed.
- Modern technical facilities are available.
- The hall offers space for a musical performance.
- The surrounding foyers can be used during breaks for lunches or walking dinners, or as a reception area.

Recital Hall

For smaller gatherings

The oval shape of the smaller Recital Hall provides a warm, more intimate atmosphere, where your guests will immediately feel at ease. This hall is perfectly suited to your conference or presentation, with capacity for some 400 guests. The amazing acoustics mean that presenters and speakers will easily be heard by everyone in the hall. And, of course, the podium can also be used for a musical intermezzo. During breaks, you can have lunches, walking dinners or coffee and tea served in the foyers around the hall.

Choir Hall

Comfortably between the stars

In the basement of the Concertgebouw, you will find the Choir Hall, which was originally built as a choir practice area. This space can accommodate up to 150 people for a reception, party, dinner, meeting or presentation, with live music if desired. The upholstered walls give this room an intimate feeling. If you wish, you can make use of the special LED light pattern in the walls, which will make your guests feel like they are enjoying a dinner or concert under a starry sky. The hall can be set up any way you like, which means that the possibilities are limitless.

- Modern technical facilities are available.
- Multifunctional space offers many options.

To royal tradition

With its many mirrors, crystal chandeliers and Doric pillars, the oval Mirror Hall has unprecedented festive allure. That makes it the perfect hall for dinners, receptions and parties where you really want to put your guests in the spotlight. There's a good reason that Princess Máxima celebrated her 40th birthday here in 2011. For many years now, the royal family has regularly used the Spiegelzaal for special parties. You can welcome some 200 guests in this hall.
